Dear Mr. Weisberg:

I just read in the Bergen Record this week about the unusual deaths of witnesses who were in Dallas. I don't want to live in fear the rest of my life that some-one might have me bump-ed off.

I can give you almost all of the information that you requested in your letter, but first I must know that I can trust you. I won't know this until I meet you.

I will be driving to W. Va. to visit with my mother the latter part of this month. I usually spend the night near Charlestown, W. Va. as I don't like to make the entire trip in one day. If I recall correctly, I usually take 81 South to Lexington, Va.

If it is convenient with you, I could meet you near Frederick, Md. I can write to you concerning the date that I plan to leave. If this arrangement isn't convenient, I can meet you some time during the day whenever you are in N. Y. C. again.

Before I give you any more information, I must know that the information will be held Confidential & that I can trust you.

I have never read any of your books, but I do look forward to reading them in the future. I never knew there was a threat against JFK in Miami. I never read anything about it in the newspaper.

I will be in Calif. for a couple of days some time this month. I will answer your letter if I receive it when I return.

Sincerely,

P. N.
